Web mail from: Mr. Ryan Bodge

address: 2568 Mukluk Loop Eielson AFB AK 99702

MESSAGE:

Ma'am,

My name is Captain Ryan A. Bodge (USAF). I am currently deployed to Iraq for my third combat tour in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. My wife and son reside in Fairbanks (Eielson AFB).

If you have a minute please guide me in the right direction. Without wasting your time with all of the details; during my deployment last year I was injured as a result of an enemy attack. My Purple Heart submission was denied without explanation. I have been advised by my deployed chain of command to seek congressional assistance. I am originally from Cold Spring NY, I have attempted to email the Honorable John Hall NY 19 however, I receive error messages. I don't want to make a huge deal of this I am just curious if something can be done.

Please advise.

Thank you.

v/r

R. Bodge

So that everyone is clear and we're consistent, despite what some of the press is saying and already criticizing us for, I WILL release the number and name of applicants tonight, and will always err on the side of MORE transparency, not less, when dealing with applicants and proposals and the public's expectations that they'll be privy to all AGIA info (unlike murkowski's tactic).

Lott's brother-in-law Scruggs indicted on bribery charges

Sen. Trent Lott's brother-in-law, Richard "Dickie" Scruggs, a high-profile trial lawyer best known for suing Big Tobacco and insurance companies, has been indicted on bribery charges.

Several media outlets are reporting the news about Scruggs, who has been accused of trying to bribe a Mississippi judge. Scruggs is perhaps best known for suing tobacco companies in multibillion-dollar lawsuits in the late 1990s. But he also acted as Lott's lawyer, as well as the attorney for many Mississippi homeowners, in a successful lawsuit against State Farm Insurance when the firm denied thousands of claims in the wake of Hurricane Katrina.

Scruggs is perhaps the most powerful attorney in Mississippi but is well-known in Washington for his involvement in tobacco and asbestos litigation over the years.

<http://www.myeyewitnessnews.com/news/local/story.aspx?content_id=f55d23cc-3137-47e4-88a3-5197612873c6> The Associated Press and Mississippi <http://www.wlbt.com/Global/story.asp?S=7423440&nav=menu119_3> television stations are reporting the story, as well as <http://www.huffingtonpost.com/2007/11/28/trent-lotts-brotherinl_n_74572.html> The Huffington Post. Here's a link to the <http://www.wlbt.com/Global/link.asp?L=282257&nav=menu119_3> 13-page indictment, which describes the bribery scheme.

Lott, the Senate Republican whip who surprised many on Capitol Hill when he announced his planned retirement from the Senate on Monday, has not been named in the indictment and has not been accused of any wrongdoing. His office was not commenting on the case late Wednesday.

Conoco Phillips offers gas pipeline plan

The Associated Press

Published: November 30, 2007
Last Modified: November 30, 2007 at 05:45 AM

HOUSTON -- Oil exploration and production company ConocoPhillips said today it submitted a proposal to develop a pipeline in Alaska that would transport about 4 billion cubic feet per day of natural gas to the United States and Canada.

The company said it is "prepared to make significant investments, without state matching funds, to advance this project."

ConocoPhillips said it is already gathering data in the area to support the pipeline permit application.

During the initial phase of the project, Bechtel Oil, Gas and Chemicals Inc. will provide construction and design support, the company said.

Shares of ConocoPhillips fell 60 cents to $78.22 in premarket electronic trading.
